Query, whether the leaders of the Republican party contemplated a movement regarding Hayes' action in withdrawing the troops from Louisiana. Blaine said it was not fitting for him to answer that question at present.

An Unfounded Story.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Senator Blaine, referring to the San Francisco Argonaut's story that he has prepared resolutions to present to Congress for new inquiry into the late Presidential election, telegraphs the associated press there is not the slightest foundation for the story. It is the invention of a lunatic or idiot.

Blaine's Version.

NEW YORK, April 23.—In another telegram referring to the Argonaut's story Blaine says it cannot be possible that anybody is ass enough to believe it.

Fire.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The editorial and composing rooms of the Journal of Commerce were ruined by fire this morning; also a valuable library, the property of Mr. Stone. Loss $25,000; insured.

Fire at Omaha.

OMAHA, April 23.—A fire originating in Pioneer block last night destroyed nearly the entire block. C. F. Greedman, druggist, loses building and stock, valued at $60,000; insured for $20,000. J. F. Lehman, pawnbroker, loses building and stock valued at $18,000, partly covered by insurance.

Suicide.

ST. LOUIS, April 22.—Thos. R. Williamson, formerly a stock broker in San Francisco, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head at 9:30 this morning. His wife was divorced from him seven years ago, and came here about a week since from Hot Springs, where he had been for his health. He attempted to affect a reconciliation with his wife with a view to remarriage, but failing in this blew his brains out.

Demoralized.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The Post says that at the Stock Exchange demoralization rules supreme and thoroughly. It has confidence in the fact the corporate management has been undermined, and that investors as well as speculators have taken fright, and to a greater or less extent are sacrificing their property without much regard to value.

Bulls and Bears.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Wall street was raided again by the bears to-day, but in the afternoon all stocks rallied and the market closed with a cheerful feeling and higher prices.

Operatic.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The World says Max Strakosch has engaged Clara Louise Kellogg for a season of 50 representations in New Orleans and on the Pacific coast for which she is to receive $30,000 in gold. The prima donna will be supported by Annie Louise Cary, Tom Carl, tenor; Signor Verde, baritone; Mr. Conly, basso, and [illegible] Behrens, musical director. The company will leave New York in August and open September 10th in San Francisco. Miss Kellogg has never been to the Pacific coast, and the company will give operas never before sung.

The ex-President's Moves.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Ex-President Grant and Mrs. Grant arrived to-night.

Mrs. Hayes and Temperance.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—A temperance organization was formed in this city to-night, under the name of "Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes' Temperance Society." Resolutions were adopted endorsing the sentiments of Mrs. Hayes in regard to the use of intoxicating liquors at State dinners and similar occurrences.

Put Him Out.

Charges of maladministration have recently been preferred against B. F. Potts, governor of Montana, coupled with an earnest appeal from chief Republican authorities of the Territory for his removal from office, which were supplemented by additional strong papers in the hands of the President yesterday. Among these is a sworn deposition of J. K. Alden, clerk of the Supreme Court of Montana, charging Potts with withholding fees collected and long due to D. W. Middlet as clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States; also a letter of Potts copied from the records of the Department of Justice, stultifying Potts. The endorsement of James H. Mills, for Secretary of Montana, whose appointment was recently made but afterwards withdrawn by the President, is in this letter. Potts characterizes Mills as a "mud slinger" at the administration, and as abusing the Attorney General. Potts further remarks: "I think it bad enough to be abused by our political enemies; but when men who live by the favors of the administration abuse us, they should be compelled to draw their sustenance from some other quarter." It is believed Gov. Potts will be suspended, or notified that his resignation would be accepted.

Official Decision.

Chief Justice Carter yesterday denied a writ of mandamus, applied for against the Secretary of the Navy, the object of the petitioners being to compel that official to revise the action of the department in the settlement of the prize money for the capture of the rebel ram Albemarle. The judge held that the service of the previous Secretary of the Navy did not hold good as respected the present incumbent; that this money had already been distributed and paid out, and there was no reliable ground on which to found their application. The counsel for the petitioners gave notice of an appeal.

Special Session--Bennett--The Argonaut Story.

The World's Washington special says the proclamation convening Congress will be issued this week. Now that the troops in the South are removed there will be no difficulty about the army appropriation.

Jas. Gordon Bennett, it is understood, has taken a lease of a handsome property in England, in the heart of a fine hunting country.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says: The Western associated press dispatch from San Francisco contains an absurd story, copied from Frank Pixley's San Francisco Argonaut. No one who knows Blaine will credit any part of this story.

Redemption of 5-20s.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—It is probable that within a few days the secretary of the treasury will issue the 46th call for the redemption of $10,000,000 5-20 bonds.

Well Satisfied.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Ex-Congressman Long (colored), of Georgia, expresses himself as fully satisfied that the President's Southern policy is needed to bring about good feeling among all Southern people without regard to politics or color. In Georgia, he says, colored people have no cause of complaint; the feeling between the two races is friendly, and all are secured in their rights. He spoke of the liberality of the State in providing educational means for colored as well as white people. In his own city (Macon) white and black unite in selecting the best men to office without regard to politics.

Stevens' Interview with the President.

Alexander H. Stevens rode out to-day for the first time for several months. Mr. Stevens called at the executive mansion and had a talk with the President. He said he was glad to see the President pursuing such a course as would bring together the discordant elements of the country in harmony, and that all the President had to do was to perform his duty to produce that desirable result. The President in reply remarked, it was his purpose to pursue the course he deemed best to serve the interests and harmony of the entire country, thinking the time had come when every effort should be made to that end. He expressed his pleasure in making the acquaintance of Stevens, and that gentleman reciprocated the compliment. Stevens also called on Speaker Randall and Clerk Adams.

The Hayes Policy.

CHICAGO, April 23.—The Journal's Washington special says: The publication of ex-Senator Wade's letter, attacking the President's policy, is the subject of discussion to-day. The opinion prevails that the letter will encourage other Republicans to speak out their convictions.

Senator Gordon says the President has done something which the Democratic party has been trying to accomplish for years, and has made a united South and a divided North. Under this condition, he thinks the success of the Democrats in the next great contest is assured.

RICHMOND, April 23.—The Dispatch, to-day, says it is folly to suppose the President's action in regard to South Carolina and Louisiana will result in any Democrats leaving their party to join the administration. The President has simply followed the Democratic doctrine in the course pursued, for which he is entitled to praise.

Supreme Court Decision.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The First National Bank, Washington, vs Whitman, error, to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. In this case it is held that the payer of a check which has not been accepted by the bank on which it is drawn cannot maintain an action upon it against the bank. Payment to a stranger upon an unauthorized endorsement does not operate as an acceptance of the check, so as to authorize an action by the real owner to recover its amount as upon an accepted check.

Indian Affairs.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Red Cloud and Spotted Tail agencies, which for some time have been in charge of the military, will soon be turned over to the civil authorities.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, April 22.—No apparent change in the situation since last night. It is believed that Packard will remain in the State House until the troops are withdrawn and his men paid off. The contingent fund, which Gov. Nicholls has consented to use for this purpose, will be disbursed by his Paymaster General. This plan shuts out a number of enterprising individuals, and the impression now is that the U. S. Senator will not be elected until Wednesday next.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Ex-Governor Warmouth telegraphed to a friend in Washington to-day that Packard will visit the St. Louis hotel directly after the removal of the troops to-morrow.

Packard's Retirement.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Ex-Gov. Warmoth telegraphed that Packard will vacate the St. Louis hotel directly after the removal of the troops to-morrow.

Paying Off and Writing his Valedictory.

CHICAGO, April 23.—The Tribune's New Orleans special says Packard has been paying attention to the payment of his legislators and officers by Nicholls, and will not leave the State house before this is done. His final address will appear in the Wednesday morning papers. It will contain nothing challenging the right of Hayes to the electoral vote of the State, and no evidence is being collected here to show that Tilden carried the State, as sensational dispatches allege. The troops will be quietly removed to-morrow.

The Louisiana Legislature.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—The following Republican members were to-day sworn in the House: Kiating, Brown, Denkgrave, Hill, Gray, Magloire, Brown, Thomas, Gracien. Denkgrave said they considered it their duty to follow the majority of their colleagues, but not to surrender their principles. They yielded to the force of circumstances, and would co-operate in any measure for the good of the State.

A letter of resignation from Lucius Early, who was returned from West Feliciana by the Board, was read and received. There are now absent from the House but four Republican members, and from the Senate three. Gov. Packard remained in the State house.

Nominated for Senator.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—Judge H. M. Spofford was nominated to day by the Democratic caucus for United States Senator. In the interview yesterday he said the policy of President Hayes as outlined by his inaugural address and his official actions since he was declared President by constitutional authority, has my hearty approbation, and so long as he stands squarely up to that policy he will have my humble support.

CANADA.

Rough on Insurance Agents.

OTTAWA, April 22.—The Senate has passed an insurance bill increasing existing restrictions on American and foreign companies. This will probably become a law, and the result will be the withdrawal of several American companies.

LEE'S CONFESSION.—A recent Washington dispatch gives this: There promises to be a lively fight between United States Attorney Howard and Marshal Nelson, of Utah, on one hand, and Ed. Gilman on the other, regarding Lee's confessions. Nelson has filed affidavits with the Attorney General denying all of Gilman's charges and severely reflecting on his character. Gilman himself, it is said, is on route to Washington, supplied with Mormon funds to pay his expenses.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Movement of Russian Troops.

LONDON, April 23.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times says: "According to advices from the Russian frontier, the Czar's troops are moving slowly, on account of bad roads and bad weather. Roumania roads are in such a hopeless state that three weeks are named as the shortest time in which they can be made fit for heavy military transportation. The conviction has gradually dawned that a far larger force is required for the task which Russia has before her than was first prepared. If news from St. Petersburg is to be trusted, an order for mobilization of the whole army will actually be needed. Whether this be the case or not, it is certain that since the troops in Bessarabia began to move towards the frontier a general movement of Russian forces began southward and westward. Thus for some reason, probably to be prepared for every event, Russia thinks it necessary to have at her disposal a much larger force than until lately she deemed sufficient for the object she had in view. It will require weeks, if not months, before these forces can be dispatched to their destination. There is, therefore, a very weighty military motive for not precipitating matters, as it may be supposed Mr. Layard will once more endeavor to induce the Turks to make some advance toward settlement. There is little ground to suppose that Russians expect any more than others from such possible attempts, but they would have taken away every possibility of such an attempt being made if they had come forward with their manifesto immediately. A dispatch from Pera says the Sultan, while still hoping for peace, definitely decided to-day to go to the Danube and take command of the troops in case of war.

Roumanian Affairs.

LONDON, April 23.—A dispatch from Vienna reports that Roumanian troops occupy Alentiza, opposite Tutrakan, Guirgeso, opposite Kustchuck, and Karas, opposite Silestria, under Russian commanders, in order to permit the Russian forces to concentrate between Brailai and Ismalia. At Terejova 20,000 Roumanians are forming reserve troops. A portion of the Turkish flotilla is taking position at Hirzova, near Galatz, where the Turks expect the Russians will try to cross the Danube. The Servian government has sent troops to Gladova to disarm Servian volunteers who refuse to disband, and the Servian corps of observation is forming on the Timok.

A Vienna dispatch states that a manifesto by Roumania will be published immediately after Russia's, to the effect that Roumania acts in alliance with Russia in the war. The reason given is that Turkey persists in denying Roumania her rightful privileges and insultingly endeavors to designate her as an integral part of the Turkish empire.

BUCHAREST, April 22.—The movement of Roumanian troops towards Kalafat has been suspended. Roumania may possibly relinquish the idea of forcibly opposing the occupation of Kalafat, if the Turks request permission to occupy it after the Russian army enters Roumania.

The panic in Bucharest continues, although the report that Abdul Kerim intends to push on thither is contradicted.

Roumania's Dilemma.

The Roumanian cabinet has as yet made no official communication to the powers relative to the neutrality which is guaranteed Roumania by the treaty of Paris, but unofficial parleys have taken place in Vienna. It is said at St. Petersburg that the basis of administrative arrangements have been drawn up, in readiness for the event of the occupation of Roumania becoming necessary, but no definite convention has been called. Roumania is endeavoring to secure the neutrality of a portion of her territory, especially of Bucharest. Russia has hitherto evaded entering upon any arrangement to observe total or partial neutrality of Roumania, and General Ghekia has been sent to St. Petersburg to obtain some authority on this argument.

England Reinforces her Mediterranean Fleet.

LONDON, April 23.—The Post says: We understand the English Mediterranean fleet will shortly be reinforced by the Channel squadron.

Arrival of the Emperor.

LONDON, April 22.—The Emperor of Russia arrived at Kischeneff yesterday.

Gortschakoff's Circular.

VIENNA, April 22.—Another dispatch says a courier with Prince Gortschakoff's circular arrived here, and to all appearances the circular is identical with the war manifesto and ultimatum to the Porte. M. Neldoff will present a copy to the Porte and immediately forward department for Constantinople.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 22.—Prince Gortschakoff's circular to the Powers has not yet been delivered. Its delivery is expected to-morrow, which will be one day before the proclamation of the imperial manifesto and declaration of war. The Czar will review the troops at Kischineff on Tuesday.

To Possibility of Averting War.

WASHINGTON, April 22—Cablegrams received by the State Department indicate there is no possibility of averting war between Russia and Turkey.

Turkey Censured and Warned.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 22.—It is said Layard at an interview with Edheim and Safaet Pasha on Saturday, censured the terms of the Porte's reply to the protocol, and reiterated his warning that England cannot support Turkey. It is said he touched upon the question whether it was still possible to avert war, but it is believed the result of his interviews with Turkish ministers and foreign charges, especially with M. Neidoff, Russian representative, is that a pacific solution is impossible. The yacht Argonaut, bringing instructions for Neldoff, arrived here to-day. It is stated that Edheim Pasha has addressed a dispatch to the Prince of Roumania in reference to the concentration of Roumanian troops, requesting the Prince to place himself in harmony with the Porte. It is said copies of the dispatch have been sent to all ambassadors already.

Mediation to be Asked of the United States.

Rumors are in circulation that Layard, the British minister, was instructed to advise Turkey to ask mediation of the United States regarding the question of peace or war with Montenegro.

Russian Consulate Demolished by Turks.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The Herald correspondent at Constantinople telegraphs that the Russian Vice Consulate at Karisina, Asia Minor, was nearly demolished by Turkish soldiers.

PERA, April 23.—The Russian consulate at Ahkari has been attacked by disorderly Turkish soldiers. The inmates were rescued by Turkish troops after a slight affray.

More Neutrality.

PARIS, April 22.—The French Cabinet in council has resolved that Minister Martel shall address an official letter to all his bishops, pointing out the dangers and complications which might arise from political manifestations on part of the clergy.

Russia's Delay.

LONDON, April 23.—The Times' Vienna correspondent says the Russian manifesto is not likely to be issued before the Czar's return from Kischineff, April 29th. The same correspondent repeats the report that Russia's circular note has been dispatched by special couriers. He adds: However this may be the note has not been received here. The conclusion is that there is to be a respite of about a week. Russia's reasons for this delay seems rather complex. The apparent reason is that her preparations are not quite completed.

French Fleet in the Levant.

TOULON, April 23.—The French government is forming a third division of ironclads, consisting of a frigate and two corvettes, to proceed to the Levant for protection of French subjects.

Russian Finances.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 23.—The Panslavic Journal recommends the government to raise a heavy loan rather than multiply paper, which amount is so great that coin has risen from 4 to 6 roubles during the last few days. Nothing regarding a loan will be settled until the war becomes inevitable.

Don't Like It.

BERLIN, April 23.—Turkey commands Servia to participate in the war. The Servian press is exceedingly hostile.

Russian Officers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 23.—The Russian charge d'affairs and staff of the Russian embassy and consulate, will leave Constantinople this evening for Odessa.

Austria Takes a Hand.

LONDON, April 23.—The Times' correspondent with the Turkish army says 10,000 men from Widden have gone to the seat of war despite the assertion that an understanding between Austria and Russia relative to Eastern affairs has been arranged. There is no doubt that Austria reserves absolute liberty of action.

By Your Leave.

A Russian telegraph agency dispatch says the Porte calls on Servia for leave to occupy its frontier at Gladora to prevent the passage of Russians.

According to Circumstances.

VIENNA, April 23.—At a meeting of conference Saturday it was proposed that Austria should not occupy Bosnia if the peace of Servia was certain. If, however, Servia shows a tendency to insurrection the Austrian army will probably cross the frontier. The messenger bearing Prince Gortschakoff's circular has arrived.

The Frei Presse, which has opposed the occupation of any portion of the Turkish territory by Austria, now declares it unavoidable, and says the moment is near for such countermovement.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 23.—The Grand Vizier telegraphs the Prince of Roumania relative to the concentration of Roumanian troops at Kalafat, and calls attention to the provisions of the treaty of 1858, and invites the Prince to arrange with Abdul Kerim to prevent the passage of the Russian army through Roumania.

War Items.

ROME, April 23.—The Italian government has called out two reserves for contingent purposes.

LONDON, April 23.—The Russian army has advanced into Bucharest.

Russo-Turkish Relations Broken Off.

LONDON, April 23.—The under secretary for the foreign department, in reply to a question by Mr. Foster, said telegrams from Layard had just been received, announcing that the Russian charge d'affairs had been instructed to suspend relations with Turkey; also a telegram from the counsel at Bucharest announcing that a small detachment of Russian troops reached Bucharest this morning.

Turco-Miridite Troubles.

RAGUSA, April 23.—Fighting in the Miridite country is suspended. The Turks are unable to advance because of badness of the roads and want of supplies. Two thousand sick are in hospitals at Scutara.

Milan and Tudiff.

BELGRADE, April 24.—Prince Milan has received General Tudiff, the Russian panslavist, in audience.

Tchernayeff Gone to Kischeneff.

PARIS, April 23.—General Tchernayeff has started for Kischeneff.

A Prussian with a Policy.

LONDON, April 23.—The Post's Berlin special says: It is reported that Herr Campnausen, Prussian finance minister, has declared that he will resign if Prussia's proposal for a retaliatory and partially protective tariff on certain kinds of iron and steel goods is defeated in part. Nevertheless, it is believed that the motion will be defeated by a small majority.

For the Defense of Suez.

LONDON, April 23.—There is a rumor in the lobby of the House of Commons that the government has resolved to send a fleet to the Suez canal, and that Earl Beaconsfield has visited the Queen to obtain Her Majesty's sanction.

The Declaration Expected.

LONDON, April 23.—A dispatch from Paris to night states that Prince Orloff, the Russian ambassador, has received Gortschakoff's circular announcing Russia's reasons for declaring war. He proceeded to the French foreign office this afternoon to communicate the circular to Duke DeCazes. The declaration of war is expected to-morrow.

Roumania Asking Counsel.

LONDON, April 23.—It is believed that Roumania intends to consult the guaranteeing powers as to her course.

The Czar to his Soldiers.

KISCHENEFF, April 23.—The Emperor of Russia yesterday reviewed the 9th army corps at Umberenka and Birsula. Addressing the officers at the latter place the Emperor said: "If you should encounter the enemy show yourselves brave and uphold the ancient glory of your regiments. I hope the young men among you who have not been under fire will not show themselves inferior to their veteran comrades. I trust you may soon return covered with glory."

The Emperor also addressed the officers of the 11th cavalry division. He said he hoped their regiments would display the same brilliant courage as ever. The greatest enthusiasm prevails everywhere among the troops and people.

The Emperor sleeps to-night at Tirespot, where a review will be held to day. His majesty afterward goes to Ungheni for another review the same day and will return to Kicheneff about midnight.

The Czar's Residence.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 23.—It is believed that the Czar and Empress will reside during the war principally at Illinsk, near Moscow. The Czar will probably return to St. Petersburg from Kischeneff before taking up his residence at Illinsk.

Our Relations with Russia.

The reports that special measures have been taken against American vessels on account of their transport of war material to Turkey are contradicted in official quarters. It is added that Russia's relations with America are excellent, and that any disturbance of them is carefully avoided.

Russia will Take no Part in a Comedy.

The Russian telegraphic agency commenting on the newspaper rumors that the Porte intends to dispatch a mission to Kischeneff, says endeavors had been made at Constantinople to induce the Turks to send such a mission, but the Turks in view of the vote of the Chamber were not disposed to make any serious offer. Mere courtesy would not meet the requirements of the present state of affairs, and Russia could not consent to take part in a comedy. Turkey's only object in sending a mission would be to act as the conciliatory party, in order to throw upon Russia the responsibility of war, and perhaps to attribute to her the odious intention of territorial aggrandizement.

Actual War Movements.

LONDON, April 24.—The Times' special from Berlin reports that a Russian force of 20,000 men is being concentrated on the Pruth, and will shortly be ready to cross.

CETTINJE, April 23.—Montenegrin troops are in motion again. Gen. Vaihovitch has occupied Krotlac, and has received a reinforcement of 800 men from Zobacia. The Turks threaten to force Duga Pass. Another detachment of Montenegrins has arrived at Laniani.

Roumanians Greet the Czar.

JASSY, April 23.—The prefect, magistracy and clergy of this town have gone to Kischeneff to greet the Czar in the name of the Prince of Roumania.

Italy will Remain Neutral and Work for Peace.

ROME, April 23.—Both the minister of foreign affairs and the president of the council have stated in the most formal terms that Italy, after having acquitted herself of her mission as a power, called upon to use her influence for peace and conciliation has emerged from the negotiations and from any special engagements and keeping excellent relations with all the powers, Italy was ready to resume her work of pacification as soon as circumstances permitted. She was resolved to preserve her independence and the neutral character of her policy. Replying more particularly to a question whether the Italian government intended to take any military measures, the ministry declared any such measures were entirely beyond their present anticipations. The government would take no steps without previously giving parliament an opportunity to deliberate upon it.

War Certain.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 23.—It is not considered probable that the powers will offer mediation between Russia and Turkey as provided in the eighth article of the treaty of Paris. It is stated the Porte would not be disposed to accept it. War is now admitted on all sides to be inevitable.

LONDON, April 23.—A fuller report of the Czar's speech at Birsula shows that he spoke much more as if war was determined upon than first summary would convey.

Russians Quiet--The Turkish Capital.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 23.—M. Nelidoff, and staff of the Russian embassy, have left Constantinople. Russian arms had been removed from the doors of the embassy previous to his departure. M. Nelidoff caused a note to be delivered to Safvet Pasha announcing the rupture of diplomatic relations in consequence of the failure of negotiations which have been carried on.

The Ultimatum Presented.

LONDON, April 24.—The Standard's dispatch from Constantinople, says Prince Gortschakoff's circular containing Russia's ultimatum, has been presented to the Porte.

An immense crowd witnessed the removal of Russian arms from the doors of the embassy.

The Russian War Circular

The Standard's correspondent at Vienna says the Russian circular note which arrived there, censures Safvet Pasha's recent note rejecting the protocol from which it draws the conclusion that Russia finds herself under the necessity of proceeding single handed in order to realize the wishes of Europe. Russian representatives abroad are instructed to declare verbally that Russia, although compelled by the course of events to take energetic measures, only intends to obtain guarantees for a thorough compliance with the demands of the great powers, resolved upon in various conferences, for the improvement of the condition of Christians. Russia is not desirous of territorial aggrandizement.

More Warlike Movements.

Gen. Milutine, minister of war, and Adjutant General Prince Dolgoruki accompanied the Czar to Kischeneff. The imperial suite consisted of 300 persons. The military attaches of the Austrian and German embassies followed, of their own accord, in the next train from St. Petersburg.

After the passage of the Pruth by the Russians, Abdul Kerim will send a large force of Circassians to destroy the railways.

Count Andrassy no Longer Opposes War.

The rumor is revived of Count Andrassy's impending resignation. This, however, is emphatically denied in well informed quarters, and it is understood that Andrassy is no longer opposed to military measures, if needed for the protection of Austria's interests.

The Russians will March on the [illegible].

A later dispatch from Vienna announces that the Russian army will commence to march to Roumania on Wednesday. The Russian naval authorities have [illegible] navigation between Crimea and Caucasus.

[illegible] to Austria.

The Standard's Pesth special reports that Russia is anxious to enter into a formal engagement with Austria to renounce all projects of annexation in Turkey or on the Danube, as well as the idea of the eventual formation of new slave States under Russian protection. The people in Pesth distrust Russia's assurances. Preparations are making there to mobilize the Austro-Hungarian army so as to be ready for any emergency.

Internal Troubles in Turkey.

A Times dispatch from Pesth says intelligence is received from Crete that the Turks [illegible] all their authority in the country and have little in towns. The peasantry are all organized for insurrection in the mountains. There are only 7,000 Turkish soldiers in the island.

The Italian Squadron.

The Times special from Rome reports that the Italian squadron which sailed from Taranto with sealed orders is bound for Salonica.

Command of the Egyptians.

A special from Alexandria says that Prince Hassan, minister of war, will go to Constantinople. He intends to take command of the Egyptian army corps in the war with Russia. More troops were embarking yesterday.

Levying Contributions.

A Vienna correspondent reports that the municipality of Rustchuk has been ordered to procure provisions for six months or leave the fortress.

Russian Forces Nearing the Frontier.

VIENNA, April 23.—A correspondent of the Free Press, under date, Galatz, April 22d, gives a detailed account of the Russian movement. He says one division of infantry, a brigade of Cossacks and three batteries of artillery have arrived at Kuber and Kitel, close to the Roumanian frontier. These are believed to be the advance guard of the 7th and 10th army corps, which form the Russian left wing. The right wing is also on the frontier higher up on the Pruth. Jogheni and Yasyent, whither the staff have removed, are at the junction of the Russian and Roumanian railways. The bulk of artillery and large bodies of infantry are already concentrated there. When the southward march of the army begins it is believed the headquarters will be transferred to Buses and afterwards to Ploejescht.

Promises to Roumania.

BERLIN, April 23.—A correspondent reports that Russia has promised the Prince of Roumania independence and a royal title.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Death of an Archbishop.

ROME, April 22.—Cardinal Vannicelli Cosonia, Archbishop of Ferrara, is dead.

Demand Refused.

LONDON, April 22.—The Roman correspondent of the Standard says he is assured that Germany demanded the extradition of Cardinal Ledochowski, but the demand was refused.

Americans Ahead.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 12.—An interesting race was rowed between one of the Gettysburg service cutter crews and a crack boat belonging to the English gun boat Cockatrice. The course was two miles up the Bosporus and return. The Americans won by a third of a mile. The English crew were challengers.

Amnesty in Spain.

MADRID, April 23.—Amnesty is proclaimed to all soldiers and officers who participated in the Carlist insurrection if they surrender in thirty days.

An Earthquake.

GLASGOW, April 23.—A severe shock of an earthquake occurred this morning at Oban Argyleshire.

Silver.

LONDON, April 23.—Silver 54½d.

Bank of England.

LONDON, Apr 23.—The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day was £9,000.

The Virginius Butcher.

LONDON, April 23.—In the House of Commons Bourke said Spain had promised to try General Burriel, of Virginius massacre notoriety, and that the trial had been delayed on account of non-receipt of papers from Cuba.

American Vessels in [illegible].

VILLAFRANCA, April 23.—The United States steamer Vandalia sailed for Constantinople [illegible] urday, to remain. The America goes [illegible] and the Syrian coast immediately.

MEN AND IDEAS.

[illegible] does the world produce men [illegible] after they have passed away, [illegible] proportions from generation [illegible] one can almost tell upon his [illegible] in any one century, or in [illegible], that can meet this real test [illegible]. By common consent Burke is [illegible] as the great philosophic statesman [illegible] England, and his fame grows larger with [illegible] time;—though there was no such [illegible] recognition of his pre-eminence till [illegible] he had passed away. In America [illegible] takes a similar position. The abil[illegible] this extraordinary man were indeed [illegible] in his lifetime, but by only a [illegible] of his countrymen. It is a [illegible] than one hundred pages, [illegible] the more valuable as a [illegible] of Hamilton's ser[illegible] a national government [illegible], and as an esti[illegible] of his vast in[illegible] politics and [illegible] government. [illegible]

[illegible] require Democrats to name a straight partisan ticket for our municipal election in June. No doubt this would do much to rekindle an ardent love for the immortal resolutions, which unfortunately have been a good deal under a cloud since the confederacy that rested on them collapsed. But a straight Democratic ticket would probably be beaten badly; and it certainly would if Republicans should accept the issue as a political one. In that case there would be little cheer for the drooping hearts that try still to carry bravely those sacred resolutions. To speak with more seriousness, there are no doubt many Democrats as well as Republicans who see how absurd it is to insist on party divisions in the election of municipal officers. If anybody supposes it is going to be an easy thing, particularly in the present state of politics, to get a strict party vote in a town election, he is likely to be undeceived and disenchanted when the matter is brought to proof.

And now it is proved that not only republics, but Republicans, are ungrateful. The principal Republican papers of the country, as the Chicago Tribune and the Tribune of New York, are terribly severe in their condemnation of the few white men at the South who have been guilty of adhering to the Republican party. Packard and Chamberlain will probably let their Northern brethren elect a President next time, if they want one.

On Saturday last the Daily Record, an evening paper, under direction of E. O. Norton, appeared at Salem. It starts hopefully for a race with its two competitors. Norton claims that he will make it go. His first number certainly looks well.

Unless the portents are very misleading, an assault will be made from the Republican side on Hayes policy the moment the special session convenes. The assault may be more noisy than harmful, but it will pretty certainly be made.

BRIEF NOTES.

Prof. Tay or to-night.

De Murska to-morrow evening.

U. S. District Court this morning.

Operatic season postponed one night.

New flag staff on Odd Fellows Temple.

Large Eastern overland mails last evening.

Farmers will soon be "all among the 'ay."

The carpet-shaking mania has commenced.

The steamer Gussie Telfair is lying in ordinary.

The hills are clad in vernal carpet—as it were.

The phlegmatic bed bug arises from his winter torpor.

The festive gambolier wanteth a victim—business is dull.

Circuit Court is in session at Oregon City, Judge Boise presiding.

A large number of the fisheries down the river are busily engaged.

Immense travel between Astoria and Portland and intermediate points.

Stark street, between Fifth and Sixth, is in a very demoralized condition.

The wharves, in the absence of sailing vessels, are as dull as a cemetery.

The steamer Ajax arrived last evening at 10 o'clock with freight and passengers.

A number of the Portland attorneys are in attendance on the court at Oregon City.

The remains of the late Mrs. Chas. Haunstein came up on the Ajax for interment.

The foundation for the new buildings at the corner of First and Pine has been laid.

Rev. L. M. Nickerson, of Salem, will remove with his family to Klamath Agency.

Jackson Frost is threatening to pay the fruit crop a nocturnal visit. His company is not desired.

The Oneonta brought down, last evening, 169 head of beef cattle. These animals were large and in prime condition.

Lovers of the delicious bivalve will have to hurry up. Only a few more days and then the oyster season is at an end.

Nothing in the world makes a printer madder than to summon him on a jury. Who can blame him. Dispensing justice isn't his forte.

Two prominent members of the sporting fraternity were arrested yesterday on the charge of being vagrants. They will be interviewed by Judge Adams to-day.

It is said that Lieut. Knapp, whose sad and untimely fate is so deeply deplored, was soon to have been married to a most estimable young lady residing near Astoria.

AMUSEMENTS.

Owing to the very late hour of the arrival of the Opera Troupe, and the indisposition of the members thereof consequent upon sea sickness, they do not feel justified in giving a performance this evening. The first concert will take place on Wednesday evening.

TAYLOR, THE MAGICIAN.—It has been a long time since Oro Fino theater has been so crowded with human beings—not since Fourth of July week. Not only does Prof. Taylor give a good show, but he fixes the prices so low that everybody can see the show and get a chance at the prizes. We did not see the entire exhibition. The beginning was an index to the whole—satisfactory. More of it to-night, when, no doubt, the house will be crowded again. The leading present, a handsome spring lounge, was drawn by one of our citizens. To-night the first present will be a handsome set of chamber furniture, which will be on exhibition at the Oro Fino Theater.

DR. PAUL M. BARRNAY.—This celebrated physician, surgeon, author and lecturer will arrive here next week and deliver a course of five popular lectures. He will lecture at Masonic Hall, commencing next Tuesday evening. His first lecture will be free. Subject Tuesday evening, "The Throne of the Mind;" Wednesday, "The Path of Life;" Thursday, "Love, Courtship and Marriage;" Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock (for ladies only), "Health, Happiness and Beauty of Woman;" concluding lecture Friday night (for gentlemen only), "Man, what he is ... M..."

Address to Packard.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—Republican members of the House and Senate in caucus to-day adopted an address to Gov. CAPITAL NOTES.

Our new correspondent, under date of April 23d, sends the following:

Salem is at last rid of that terrible scourge, the diphtheria.

Mr. Harry Stapleton, one of our ex-capitol commissioners, is building a neat residence on the southeast corner of Center and Front streets.

Recorder Bowie is giving entire satisfaction by his just and impartial rulings in our Police Court, and by his economical management of our city affairs.

S. Friedman has sold his interest in the boot, shoe and leather business at the State penitentiary, to Jesse Ray, who will continue the business as heretofore.

Rev. Mr. Tower has succeeded in raising over $4,400 subscription towards the completion of the M. E. church of this city. When $5,000 is subscribed the trustees propose to begin operations.

Sam L. Simpson, Oregon's gifted poet, has consented to write a few stanzas, to be sung by the graduating class of the Willamette University at their commencement exercises next June.

Miss Clara A. Watt, a former teacher in the public schools of this city, is engaged in teaching a large and successful school on Howell Prairie. Miss W. is counted as one of Oregon's best teachers.

About fifty of the immigrants arriving on the last steamer are stopping in Salem, looking for homes. They are a healthy, industrious looking people, and we understand some of them are quite "full handed."

A slight altercation occurred on Commercial street Friday evening last between our ex-Penitentiary Superintendent and his former clerk. Friends interfered and the "little affair" resulted bloodless.

Rev. L. M. Nikerson and family, who have accepted positions under Indian Agent Roork, of Klamath reservation, will take their departure for that place in two or three days. They leave a host of warm friends who will gladly welcome them back.

For some reasons Salem has been called an unhealthy place. By reference to the sexton's report of the Odd Fellows' cemetery, we find that there has been only 27 burials from the city since the 15th of December last up to the 20th of the present month, 24 of these were victims of the diphtheria.

These grand and beautiful moonlight evenings—how they awaken recollections of the long ago. Salem can boast of an unusual number of lovers and maids, who are improving these precious moments, while stern parents are devising some means by which the gates can be kept on their hinges and the paint from being scratched off.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

MONDAY EVENING, April 23, 1877.

Gold in New York, 107⅛.

Silver Coin—buying, 95; selling, 96.

The week opens to-day in business circles with a very fair outlook. Financially the situation is but little changed, being quiet, with rates steadily maintained and some increase in the current demand.

Trade matters are about as at the close of last week. The tendency of breadstuffs is still upward, and another advance in flour will probably take place this week. Of wheat there is none in the market. Provisions are in rather better demand at slightly better figures.

Shipping Intelligence.

The steamship Ajax, from San Francisco, arrived at her berth at 10 o'clock this evening.

The bark Mattie Macleay, from Honolulu, consigned to her owners, with a cargo of Sandwich Island products, is due at this port.

New York Markets and Freights.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The week opens with considerable activity among California ships, and the market may really be called active, while rates for freight are very firm. The Sovereign of the Seas proceeded down the bay this morning, and the Friedlander will follow to-morrow, having cleared to-day with a full cargo. Railroad freights also show some activity, and shipments for the week are likely to prove considerable. The markets except for breadstuffs, are generally quiet; flour in fair demand at 10a12 cents higher and firmer; petroleum quiet.

NEW YORK, April 23.—At the wharves of the California clippers to-day, there is much activity and shipments are quite large, chiefly of dry goods and light freight as was wanted by vessels closing out, though at the same time ships to follow in turn did a fair business in heavier classes of freight. Rates for freight continue firm at last quotations. Merchandise markets, with few exceptions, generally active to-day. Breadstuffs, however, active and higher. Flour under continued moderate receipts was offered sparingly; the firmness and buoyancy of wheat had a tendency to strengthen values of holders, who confidently look for a higher range of values; prices stronger throughout, the advance being 15@25c per barrel. Wheat is inquired for, but business checked by meagre offerings and a further sharp rise, in instances claimed by holders of better qualities of both Spring and Winter; the demand is mostly from the export trade, bids from which source though advanced 2@3c per bushel, were not generally satisfactory to sellers. Sugars strong, for new refined; were hardly so firm for soft, but firm for hard grades. Teas quiet for all descriptions. Hides very firm and prices much above the views of buyers. California quoted at 21@22c gold.

English Crops and Markets.

LONDON, April 24.—Mark Lane Express says agricultural advices are still unfavorable, regarding the progress of spring sowing which is already tediously protracted and has been carried on more or less desultory. The sodden condition of the soil renders it almost impossible to sow barley, and farmers are anxiously waiting dry weather in the low lands of Scotland, and farm work is fairly advanced but in the north sowing has been stopped by continued falls of rain and snow. Winter wheat made slight progress, and supplies have been very light at the country markets, and farmers have shown little disposition to sell their wheat except at extravagant prices as 68 shillings for white, 60 for red. The provincial trade has been excited and prices irregular, under the prevalence of political excitement, but where sales were made prices have advanced 3 or 4 shillings. Imports of wheat into London continue moderate, arrivals from America being still insignificant. In the absence of more definite warlike news, the excitement in the grain trade at Mark Lane decreased since Monday and our market is more subdued. Prices have not, however, declined, and the present attitude is one of eager attention. Heavy insurance is being effected to cover loss of profit arising from the war prohibition of export from Russian ports, with small supplies immediately available and daily diminishing stocks. A portion of trade seems artificial, as free importation from Russia was before rarely needed so much as at present.

Chicago Grain Market.

CHICAGO, April 22.—The week has been an active and unsettled one, reflecting in markets on change the feverish state of things. On stock exchanges [illegible] the country prices for wheat have been higher than for years and closed at the top. There has been a general advance in both produce and provisions, as the following figures will show: Wheat closed $1 50¾; corn, 47c; oats, 37c; rye, 80c; barley, 78c; pork, $ 65; lard, 0c. The influences have [illegible], but war news has been anxiously looked for, and movements of railroads have caused much interest. Receipts for the week: Wheat, 2,008; corn, 120,000; oats, 45,000. Shipments—Wheat, [illegible]; corn, [illegible]; oats, 22,000. [illegible] for the same time last year—Wheat, 24,000; [illegible], 40,000; oats, 38,000; shipments—Wheat, 47,000; corn, 118,000; oats, 22,000; showing a great falling off in receipts, especially of corn.
